Vancouver Olympic Games Tickets For Sale Saturday

The second phase starts this Saturday, June 6 2009 at 10h00 (PDT). First arrive, first serve. Here are some tips.

1. Your Vancouver 2010 Ticketing account

- Take a moment to register your Vancouver 2010 ticketing account before June 6 if you don't already have one.
Register now >>>
- If you requested tickets in Phase 1 or bought Paralympic tickets, then you already have a ticketing account. Re-familiarize yourself by using your registered e-mail address and password to sign in to your account before June 6.

2. Plan ahead

While tickets are available for all sport and ceremony sessions, the majority are for preliminary ice hockey and curling. Check out the Competition Schedule before June 6 and make a list of the sports and sessions that you want to see.

3. Simplify your search

After you sign in to your account on June 6, go to Search and select only the sports on your list. Then, look for the date and event you want and add it to your shopping cart!

4. Have your Visa ready

In recognition of the 2010 Olympic Winter Games Visa sponsorship, we are proud to acknowledge Visa as the only payment card accepted. For additional information on payment see Payment FAQs

AthletesCAN Athlete Leader Series profiles our own Katie Willis

Congratulations Katie. Thanks for all the work you do on behalf of ski jumping in Canada!

“Over the past several months AthletesCAN has introduced you to a number of athletes who have played key roles in shaping AthletesCAN over the years. Now meet some active athletes who, despite training and competing en route to the 2010 Vancouver Olympic and Paralympic Games, continue to find time to make a difference as athlete leaders.

“This month AthletesCAN is pleased to introduce you to ski jumper, Katie Willis.”
